

dIFFERENT mEANINGS
End User License Agreement

This End User License Agreement (EULA) is a legally binding contract between you (either as the License Holder or the Designer working on behalf of the License Holder) and dIFFERENT mEANINGS (represented by Tobias Hönow) regarding the use of the Font Software. By receiving, purchasing, downloading, installing, or using the Font Software, you acknowledge and agree to the terms of this agreement.

1.0. License Model

As I like to keep things clean and simple, dIFFERENT mEANINGS only offer »all-in« licenses, with no distinction between print, web, social media, app, or broadcast use.

2.0. License Holder

The License Holder is the individual or legal entity for whom the Font Software is used, not the person, studio or agency working with it.

3.0. License Size

There are licenses for individuals (XS) and licenses for companies or institutions with up to 5 persons (S), 10 persons (M) or 25 persons (L). If a company grows beyond the employee limit of the purchased license, an upgrade to the appropriate License Size is required.

4.0. Do's

The purchased Font Software may be used for any printed or digital content on any number of devices, provided the fonts are used specifically for or by the License Holder and the correct License Size has been purchased.

Individuals, studios or agencies are permitted to purchase fonts on behalf of their clients when the clients are registered as the License Holder and are informed of this agreement.

5.0. Don'ts

It is not permitted to convert, modify, rename, share, lend, distribute, sublicense, transfer, rent or sell the Font Software, its design, or any parts thereof – for all change requests, dIFFERENT mEANINGS offers a comprehensive customization service for all fonts.

The use of the Font Software in any racist, homophobic, transphobic, sexist, or otherwise discriminatory context is strictly prohibited.

6.0. Ownership

The fonts and all their intellectual property will always remain copyrighted and owned by dIFFERENT mEANINGS.

7.0. Breach of Agreement

Any breach of the terms of this agreement shall constitute grounds for termination. After termination, every person involved in this breach must delete all copies of the Font Software, including backups or archival copies on external media. In the case of minor breaches, the License Holder may be given the opportunity to remedy the violation before termination.

8.0. Warranty & Liability

Although the Font Software is produced to the highest standards, under no circumstances will dIFFERENT mEANINGS be liable for any consequential, indirect, incidental or punitive damages including any lost profits, lost data or lost savings.

The installation of the fonts is at the users own risk. The Font Software is non-returnable and non-refundable. Should the Font Software have any technical defects, the License Holder has to inform me within thirty (30) days after downloading the Font Software.
